Mr. Jackson:
Dear Sir-Having used your German Bible for two years I beg to say I am pleased to say that it has been of great service. I believe that the translation of several chapters of the Gospels is more complete and more correct than the Revised Version. I have not been able to write, respectfully,

DR. JEFFERSON:
Dear Sir: I have of late been somewhat preoccupied with my own affairs, but I have not been able to forget the colored people of the South and the distressed Republic. I have placed $100.00 in the hands of the Rev. J. M. Fryer, of New Rochelle, N. Y., to be put to the use of the cause of the colored people of the South. I have also expressed great sympathy for the cause of the colored people of the South.

I have recently recommended this article which I think is the best I have ever read. I have been awarded
